REPLY:

- (1) There are no new positions created in the office of the Director-General since 01 April 2016.
- (2) There are no intentions of creating any new employment positions in the office of the Director-General in the next six months. The preliminary finding from the structure review process has indicated the reduction in the number of employment positions in the office of the Director-General. This preliminary finding is supported by the business process mapping.
- (3) No newly created employment positions were advertised.
