MEDIA ADVISORY

DWS and Majaneng Water and Sanitation Forum takes Clear Rivers Campaign to Majaneng community

25 July 2018

The Department of Water and Sanitation in partnership with the Majaneng Water and Sanitation Forum will on Thursday, 26 July 2018, embark on the clean-up of the Majaneng stream as part of its annual Clear Rivers Campaign.

The campaign is an annual event that takes place in July to coincide with the Mandela Month during which members of the public are encouraged to volunteer 67 minutes of their time to contribute to a healthy environment.

Working with different stakeholders, the department will be cleaning the Majaneng stream to create environmentally conscious communities and promoting the protection of water resources, rivers, streams, wetlands and other water ecosystems.

Members of the media are invited as follows:

Date: Thursday, 26 July 2018

Venue: Majaneng Unit D, Ext 1 (Next to Flamingo Restaurant and ZCC Church)

Time: 09:00am

For RSVP contact: Lucky Makgarengi on 012 392 1509 or 082 723 6030.
