MEDIA ADVISORY

Sokhulumi community to benefit from Gauteng DWS's sanitation and hygiene campaign

03 July 2019

The Department of Water and Sanitation (DWS) in Gauteng conduct a door-to-door Sanitation and Hygiene Campaign to sensitise communities in Sokhulumi in the City of Tshwane on issues that have an adverse impact on their daily lives.

The aim of the campaign is to encourage communities to work with government to concretely achieve Sustainable Development Goal 6 (SDG 6). The goal aims to ensure the availability of proper sanitation for all and the goal becomes part of the community's daily activities.

The campaign will also seek to tackle sanitation as an issue that hampers social and economic development of communities.

The media is invited as follows:

Date : Thursday, 04 July 2019

Venue : Sokhulumi Traditional Council (meeting place)

Time : 10:00
