DWS and SALGA to train councillors on water and sanitation business

24 August 2023

The Department of Water and Sanitation (DWS) in conjunction with South African Local Government Associations (SALGA) invites members of the media to a councillor training to be held on 29 – 30 August 2023 in Worcester.

The main objectives of the water and sanitation councillor training are to:

- provide water and sanitation services and water resource content so that councillors understand the water and sanitation business
- empower councillors to play a key policy setting role in water and sanitation services.
- provide councillors with the necessary information and knowledge to fulfil an effective oversight role of water and sanitation services within their municipalities

The training will shine light on topics such as Water and Sanitation Services Planning, Water Services Regulations, Water Services Infrastructure, Water Resource Management, amongst others.

Members of the media are invited to attend and cover the councillor training as follows:

Date: 29 August 2023
Venue: 51 Trappes Street, Worcester, 6850
Time: 10h00
