Minister Senzo Mchunu' Steering Committee to receive feedback from task team set to investigate water and sanitation interventions in North West

05 February 2023

The North West Steering Committee led by the Minister of Water and Sanitation, Mr Senzo Mchunu, will on Monday, 06 February 2023, meet its Technical Task Team to receive progress report and plans on water and sanitation interventions required for the province, subsequent to the committees' establishment last month.

Minister Mchunu set up the steering committee, chaired by him and the North West Premier, Mr Bushy Maape, to oversee the implementation of sustainable water and sanitation services in the province, and a Technical Task Team to carry out technical work of assessing, planning and implementation of the interventions for the whole province.

The task team comprising of technical experts from the Department of Water and Sanitation, Magalies Water, Provincial, district and local government, have since been converging on weekly meetings to devise a strategy on how best to provide permanent water and sanitation solutions to the communities across the province.
