MEDIA ADVISORY

Deputy Ministers Mahlobo and Seithloho to award over 50 bursaries through the WSEP

For immediate release

26 September 2024

The Department of Water and Sanitation's Deputy Ministers, David Mahlobo and Sello Seithloho, will award over 50 comprehensive study bursaries to learners through the Water and Sanitation Education Programme (WSEP) on Thursday, 26 September 2024.

This comes as the Department hosts the annual WSEP from 24-26 September 2024 at ANEW Hotel in Benoni, which has brought under one roof more than 300 learners from across the country.

The Department's officials and educators have adjudicated the competition and the Deputy Ministers will be announcing the winners of the bursaries on Thursday, 26 September 2024, in Benoni.

WSEP is a school education competition which is aimed at getting school learners to come up with innovative ways to propel the water and sanitation sector through creative ways. It is also aimed at educating learners about the importance of water use

Members of the media are invited as follows:

Date: Thursday, 26 September 2024

Venue: ANEW Hotel, Benoni in Gauteng

Time: 18:00 – 20:00
