Minister Sisulu To Meet Community and Traditional Leaders On Mzimvubu Water Project

The Minister of Human Settlements, Water and Sanitation, Lindiwe Sisulu will on Thursday, 08 April 2021 meet with traditional leaders of Lusikisiki and its surrounding areas on planned water projects in response to water challenges in the area.

The meeting with traditional leaders will also be followed by a community engagement meeting.

The Mzimvubu Water Project is expected to play a critical role in accelerating socio-economic development in the eastern region of the Eastern Cape while ensuring there is water security for the rest of the province.

Phase 1 of the project commenced early this year and this entails the construction of the access roads while administrative processes are being undertaken for the overall project.

The community meeting which will be preceded by a meeting with traditional leaders at Bomvini Great Palace Hall will take place as follows:

Date: Thursday, 08 April 2021

Time: 12h30

Venue: Mbokazi Sports Field
