REPLY:

My performance agreement is translated into a Medium Term Strategic Framework (MTSF) for a 5 years period. This is broken down into an annual performance plan. These documents form the basis of my Department being held accountable by Parliament on a quarterly basis and also held accountable by the public.

The Ministers also have to account to Cabinet on their areas of performance in line with the Outcomes they are responsible for, as outlined in the Medium Term Strategic Framework. The performance agreement of Ministers are therefore constantly assessed through Cabinet and Parliament Committees on a regular basis.
