Fanning back stronger after shark ordeal

A YEAR after his shark ordeal at Jeffreys Bay, Australian surfer Mick Fanning returns to the venue for the J-Bay Open from July 6-17.

Fanning, a three-time WSL champion, made headlines last year when he was attacked in the final of the event, which was televised, by what was estimated to be a four- to five-metre Great White. Competing with fellow Australian

Julian Wilson for the title, Fanning

was waiting for his opening wave

when he received the unexpected visit. The encounter resulted in the event being called-off but both surfers continued to compete at various breaks throughout the year. It became a testing year for Fanning as besides his shark encounter and finishing runner-up in the world standings, his brother died, making 2016

Although the memory of his scare ning has stronger recollections of his performances at what is recognised as one of the world's premier right-hand breaks, having being crowned champion in 2002, 2006 and 2014.

"When deciding where I would compete this year, J-Bay was always up there and a definite," said Fanning.

"Even if I did not surf in the event,

I would still return. My memories are too much and I could not leave the venue on the note I did last year. I just didn't feel right. It's all about moving what he calls "a personal year" when

whether he will return to full-time

Four young Durban sailors hoping to make SA team

DAVID KNOWLES

FOUR young Durban sailors are hard at work in the hope of securing a spot in the SA team for the International Sailing Federation's (ISF) Youth Worlds in Auckland, in December.

Youth World Selections in Durban from today until July 2. Albert joins forces with Butler and Brophy-Tintinger has Hall as a partner vying for a spot in the Hobie 16 with spinnaker class. It will be a tough test of skill and getting maximum benefit from the conditions as six teams from around the country take able in the catamaran class. Albert and Butler are no strangers to top competition and have logged up many hours in the double-handed class. Last year, they bagged second at the SAS Youth Nationals on a Hobie 16 with spinnaker and were equal on points with Hobie specialists Brandon Wijtenburg and Todd Fisher at the All-Cat Regatta on the Vaal Dam, sailing a Hobie 16. This included three wins for the young pairing against the more seasoned campaigners.

Brophy-Tintinger and Hall though, join forces for the first time but are accomplished sailors nonetheless. Tintinger competed in the Hobie 14 Nationals finishing a solid eighth overall, while Hall comes from a strong pedigree, comfortable at the front of the boat sailing with father Peter or brother Matthew on Hobies.

Auckland hosts a seven-day regatta with more than 400 sailors from 70 nations in attendance. South Africa will be represented in four classes — Laser, Multihull, 29er and 420.
