Minister Mokonyane to address 125th Anniversary of the Johannesburg Chamber of Commerce and Industry

22 October 2015

The Minister of Water and Sanitation, Ms. Nomvula Mokonyane, will on Friday, 23 October 2015 attend the 125th Anniversary of the Johannesburg Chamber of Commerce and Industry (JCCI).

The JCCI is the largest business association in Johannesburg and represents many businesses that play a key role in the economy and has done so for the last 125 years. The JCCI has over the years provided a platform where government and business can share information and interact in a constructive and collaborative way.

Minister Mokonyane will deliver an address at the business breakfast hosted to mark the 125th Anniversary of the JCCI, reflecting on the department's initiatives aimed at promoting water saving partnerships with business, managing water pollution, resolving costly water leaks, skills and business development, Acid-Mine Drainage and possible innovative solutions for providing decent sanitation and recycled water.

The business breakfast will take place as follows;

Venue: 7th Floor, JCC House, Corner Empire Road and Owl Street, Milpark; Johannesburg

Date: 23 October 2015

Time: 07:00 (Strictly)

Members of the Media are invited to attend and cover proceedings.
