Minister Mokonyane to conduct working visit to Nelson Mandela Metropolitan Municipality on Water and Sanitation Services Delivery

24 May 2015

Minister of Water and Sanitation (DWS), Ms. Nomvula Mokonyane, will tomorrow (25 May 2015) visit the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan Municipality (NMMM) on a working-visit aimed at engaging with leadership of the Municipality, stakeholders and communities on Water and Sanitation service delivery matters.

The Nelson Mandela Metro is, together with 27 District Municipalities, identified as an area for intervention in line with the Back-to-Basics programme of the Department of Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs.

The main aim of the visit is to monitor progress on water and sanitation projects in the Metro in particular, the Nooitgedacht Low Level Scheme Phase 2 project.

The Minister will meet the leadership of the Municipality and interact with the media thereafter as follows:

Venue: South End Fire Station, Walmer Boulevard; Port Elizabeth.

Date: 25 May 2015

Time: 11:30

Issued by the Ministry of Water and Sanitation.

For further details regards programme kindly contact Mr. Mandilakhe Zenzile on 082 883 5293.
