Deputy Minister Tshwete to celebrate International Women's Day with Nkomazi Women

07 MARCH 2017

As part of International Women's Day activities, Deputy Minister of Water and Sanitation, Ms Pamela Tshwete will inspect and handover Sanitation Facilities to the rural women of Mangweni Village in Mpumalanga on Friday, 10 March 2017.

Deputy Minister Tshwete will then proceed to Kwamhlushwa stadium where she will interact with women during a Women's Dialogue on issues affecting women in that part of the province.

International Women's Day is celebrated annually to advocate for women's rights and this day used as a time to reflect on progress made in the upliftment of women. This day is also used to celebrate the lives and achievements of many women who went against all odds to make a difference in their communities.

The International Women's Day comes at an opportune time when the country is celebrating its Human Rights Activities across the country.

Members of the media are invited as follows:

Date : 10 March 2017

Venue : Mangweni Village (Sanitation Facilities inspection & handover)

Kamhlushwa Stadium (Women Dialogue)

Time : 08:30

Issued by the Department of Water & Sanitation
